

Annual Security Intelligence Seminar

Hosted by Security Research Lab at the Institute of Technology Blanchardstown

Supported by ICT Ireland Skillnet

This event is targeted at senior managers and CEOs in Business and Technology sectors that are keen to know the status of Security Intelligence from a National, Corporate and End User level and how to get funding support in R&D to deliver competitive advantage for their business.

Location: LINC Building, Institute of Technology Blanchardstown, Dublin 15

When: Thursday 3rd December 2015 at 8:30am to 12 noon. Admission free.

0800	Registration (with breakfast)
0830	Opening address by the President of ITB: Dr Mary Meaney
0840	Keynote Speaker: BH-Consulting: Brian Honan Overview of the status of Security Intelligence at a National and International level and its importance for businesses.
0910	Corporate Speaker: IBM: Jason Flood Discussion of the current and future risks and threats facing corporate businesses and what needs to be done to increase security.
0950	Coffee Break
1020	End-User Experience Speaker: OWASP: Owen Pendlebury Discussion of the high profile cyber attacks of recent times and the danger to end-users.
1100	Funding Opportunities Speaker: Enterprise Ireland: Dr. Michael Murphy Research partnership opportunities between academy and companies.
1130	Case Studies: Short presentations of companies who have won R&D funding from European Union.
1200	Closing address (followed by light lunch)

To register for this event please visit:

<https://annalsecurityintelligenceseminar.eventbrite.ie>

The ICT Ireland Skillnet is funded by member companies and the Training Networks Programme, an initiative of Skillnets funded from the National Training Fund through the Department of Education and Skills.